Michael discussed scheduling a time for the board members to tour the Kings View facility. Ken discussed the membership committee's recommendation to reach out to front line law enforcement personnel in the county to join and participate on this committee.

Suicide Prevention Awareness Month

Fil Leanos, Behavioral Health, presented on September as Suicide Prevention Awareness Month.

Kings Partnership

Gabriella Rodriguez introduced her team and presented on the services they provide to the community and on behalf of Behavioral Health.

Data Notebook

UnChong Parry, Behavioral Health, briefly discussed the subject matter of the 2022 Data Notebook.

Staff Report

Dr. Lisa Lewis shared the following:

- The department is using Google Project Management to learn how to better manage all of its various projects.
- UnChong is using her engineering skills to assist with the old hospital remodel project; the children's KIND Center clinic and the children's psychiatric care will be moving into the new building.
- There are multiple audits taking place between now and the end of the year; there will be a Medi-Cal audit at the beginning of the new year; will be transitioning to a new electronic health record.

UnChong Parry shared the following:

- The Children's art contest was extended, and board members are encouraged to vote for their 1st, 2nd and 3rd place choices.

Advisory Board Member Comments

- Ken Baird noted that the Family Support Group continues to grow and make a huge difference in family's lives; new cards are available with all pertinent meeting information; Desarine Lowe from Behavioral Health noted the Family Support Group participants are welcome to join the BH team at the farmer's market booth in September to reach out to the community.
- Codi Pennington shared that in her ten years with the county, she has spent most of that time participating on this board and she appreciates all that she has learned about our county during that time.
- Amanda Martin noted that she looks forward to receiving the information regarding the suicide prevention summit.
- Wendy Osikafo thanked everyone for their presentations today.
- Frank Ruiz of Champions noted that the Recovery Fest is taking place on September 10th and if anyone would like to have a booth there to email him.
